Jury Trial Demanded

Plaintiff ANDREW R. PERRONG brings this action for damages, restitution, reinstatement, statutory damages, punitive damages, sanctions, interest, court costs, and injunctive relief under rights pursuant to Federal Statute under 47 U.S.C. 227, and 47 C.F.R. 64 for the ultra vires illegal actions and deliberate and knowing tortious activity of SPACE COAST MARKETING, LLC, ("SCM"), SEAN M FITZGERALD, Individually and as Principal of SCM ("FITZGERALD"), JASON LESTER BELT, Individually and as Manager of SCM ("BELT"), and Does 1 through 100, inclusive, in negligently and/or willfully contacting Plaintiff via Plaintiff's telephone to solicit sales ("Sales Calls"), by utilization of an automatic telephone dialing system and artificial or prerecorded voice, in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 et seq. and related claims that form part of the same claim or controversy. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury, and complains and alleges as follows:

I. Introduction

1. Defendant SPACE COAST MARKETING, LLC (“SCM”) is a company located in Florida and domestically incorporated therein. SCM markets, and sells, inter alia, web design and marketing services to individuals throughout Pennsylvania and other states in the US. Its registered agent address for service of process is located at 677 Atlantic Dr, Satellite Beach, FL 32937, although, upon information and belief, this information is out-of-date and does not reflect the correct address, which is 501 Tortuga Way, West Melbourne, FL 32904.

2. Plaintiff brings this action to challenge Company’s practices in the telephone solicitation of their products and services. Specifically, Plaintiff challenges Company’s and Company’s agents’ illegal telephone solicitations by which they market their products and services, illegal Calls made using an automatic telephone dialing system and robocalls, and failure to maintain a Do-Not-Call policy or list in connection therewith.

3. All of the claims asserted herein arise out of Company’s illegal telephone solicitation campaign and are a common fact pattern.

Jurisdiction and Venue

4. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

5. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2), in that Defendants conduct business in, and a substantial part of the events giving rise to plaintiff’s claims occurred in, Pennsylvania’s Montgomery County, which lies within this judicial district.

pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §118. Plaintiff received the phone calls to a 215-area code number, registered in this judicial district. Each of the Defendants has sufficient minimum contacts with this District, and otherwise purposely avail themselves of the markets in this District. Also, see Lary V The Doctors Answer, LLC CV-12-S-3510-NE (N.D. Ala. March 8, 2013.), a Federal Telephone Consumer Protection Act case, which held that “venue is proper in the district where [plaintiff] resides because the injury did not occur when the facsimile was sent... ; it occurred when the [facsimile] was received.”

II. Parties

6. Plaintiff ANDREW PERRONG (“Plaintiff”) is an individual who received the alleged phone calls on his private cellular telephone line mentioned herein. Plaintiff is an adult individual and citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania who may be mailed at 1657 The Fairway #131 Jenkintown, PA 19046.

7. Defendant SPACE COAST MARKETING, LLC (“SCM”) is a company located in Florida and domestically incorporated therein. SCM markets, and sells, inter alia, web design and marketing services to individuals throughout Pennsylvania and other states in the US. Its registered agent address for service of process is located at 677 Atlantic Dr, Satellite Beach, FL 32937, although, upon information and belief, this information is out-of-date and does not reflect the correct address, which is 501 Tortuga Way, West Melbourne, FL 32904.

8. Defendant SEAN M FITZGERALD is an adult individual who is the Primary Owner of SCM. Upon information and belief, his birth year is 1986. As Principal of SCM, FITZGERALD is the primary individual who reaps the benefit of the tortious and illegal conduct described herein that is technically carried out only in Company’s name. Such tortious, or ultra vires, conduct exceeds the permissible actions of corporations both in Florida, Pennsylvania, and nationwide.

9. Defendant JASON LESTER BELT is an adult individual who is the Primary Manager of SCM. Upon information and belief, his birth year is 1980. As Primary Manager of SCM, BELT is an individual who reaps the benefit of the tortious and illegal conduct described herein that is technically carried out only in Company's name. Such tortious, or ultra vires, conduct exceeds the permissible actions of corporations both in Florida, Pennsylvania, and nationwide.

10. Except as described herein, Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names of Defendants sued as Does 1 through 100, inclusive, and the nature of their wrongful conduct, and therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will seek leave of the Court to amend this complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained.

11. At all times herein mentioned, SCM, FITZGERALD, BELT, and the Doe Defendants, (collectively, "Defendants"), and each of them, were an agent or joint venture of each of the other, and in doing the acts alleged herein, were acting within the scope of such agency. Each Defendant had actual and/or constructive knowledge of the acts of each of the other Defendants, and ratified, approved, joined in, acquiesced and/or authorized the wrongful acts of each co-Defendant, and/or retained the benefits of said wrongful acts.

12. Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted, encouraged and rendered substantial assistance to the other Defendants in committing the wrongful acts alleged herein. In taking action, as particularized herein, to aid and abet and substantially assist the commission of these wrongful acts and other wrongdoing complained of, each of the Defendants acted with an awareness of its primary wrongdoing and realized that its conduct would substantially assist the accomplishment of the wrongful conduct, wrongful goals, and wrongdoing.

13. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants conspired by means of mutual understanding, either expressly or impliedly, among themselves and others in engaging and/or planning to engage in the activities detailed herein to accomplish the wrongful conduct, wrongful goals, and wrongdoing.

14. The TCPA imposes personal liability on individuals who participate in or commission telemarketing calls.

15. Under the TCPA, an individual such as FITZGERALD or BELT may be personally liable for the acts alleged in this Complaint pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 217, the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, of which the TCPA is a part, which reads, inter alia: “[T]he act, omission, or failure of any agent, or other person acting for or employed by any common carrier or user, acting within the scope of his employment, shall in every case be deemed to be the act, omission, or failure of such carrier or user as well as of that person.” 47 U.S.C. § 217 (emphasis added).

16. When considering individual officer liability, other Courts have agreed that a Corporate officer involved in the telemarketing at issue may be personally liable under the TCPA. See, e.g., Jackson v. Five Star Catering, Inc., v. Beason, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 159985, *10 (E.D. Mich. Nov. 8, 2013), which stated that “[M]any courts have held that corporate actors can be individually liable for violating the TCPA where they ‘had direct, personal participation in or personally authorized the conduct found to have violated the statute.’” See also Maryland v. Universal Elections, 787 F. Supp. 2d 408, 415-16 (D. Md. 2011), stating that “If an individual acting on behalf of a corporation could avoid individual liability, the TCPA would lose much of its force.”

17. FITZGERALD and BELT are personally liable under the “participation theory” of liability because they are the Principal owner and controlling manager of SCM, knew of Company’s violations, and directed employees and/or agents of Company to continue making those violations, as well as made the violations themselves. BELT is responsible for SCM’s illegal marketing practices, including illegal telemarketing. Upon information and belief, BELT’s voice is used in the prerecorded messages that were sent to Plaintiff. Furthermore, FITZGERALD is personally liable because he is personally responsible for ensuring Company’s employees’ TCPA compliance, and directed BELT to initiate the illegal calls in question.

Factual Allegations

18. In or about November 27th, 2018, Plaintiff received the first of multiple calls made using an artificial or prerecorded voice, or robocall, by Defendants and/or their agents at Plaintiff’s personal cellular telephone number, 215-208-9484, for which he is charged for the call per minute. Plaintiff had not consented to this solicitation, and Plaintiff’s telephone number was on the Federal Do-Not-Call Registry.

19. All the calls bore the same caller ID, 321-848-2353, the main telephone number for Space Coast Marketing as listed on SCM’s website, spacecoastmarketing.net.

20. This first call, received at 4:52 PM, was rejected by Plaintiff on the first ring because he was unable to speak and was busy. In so doing, Plaintiff indicated a desire not to speak to the caller and not to be called back.

21. Plaintiff received a prerecorded voicemail message from Defendant which stated, “Hi. This is Jason. Give me a call when you can. You can reach me at 321-848-2353. This message is in regards to web design and marketing for your business.”

22. Despite this, Plaintiff got another call back on November 30 at 1:52 PM from the same number. This call was unable to be answered by Plaintiff because the call only rang once before going to voicemail.

23. Upon information and belief, Defendants used an illegal prerecorded “ringless” voicemail to contact the Plaintiff because the phone only rang for one ring. In fact, Defendants brag about their use of this technology on their website at <https://spacecoastmarketing.net/ringless-dialer/>. Despite the fact that these voicemails are supposedly “ringless,” they exploit security vulnerabilities in Plaintiff’s cell phone carrier voicemail system to attempt to deliver a message without ringing the caller. Regardless, such technology is illegal, caused Plaintiff’s phone to ring, and delivered a prerecorded message that was identical in content to the one delivered on November 27.

24. Plaintiff alleges that this call specifically also violated 49 U.S.C. § 46504 and/or 49 U.S.C. § 46318 as it interfered with Plaintiff’s preflight planning and aircraft inspection prior to a scheduled flight at 3:15 PM on that same day.

25. The caller brazenly continued to call, this time on December 3, at 2:13 PM. Like the previous two calls, this call went to voicemail after one ring and played an identical prerecorded message. Like the previous two calls, this call was, upon information and belief, an illegal “ringless voicemail” call that used an “artificial or prerecorded voice” to make calls.

26. Plaintiff then received a call on December 6, 2018 at approximately 12:17 PM. Unlike the previous three calls, this call rang a few times. Recognizing the number, Plaintiff answered the call to affirmatively identify the caller.

27. The Plaintiff said “hello” before the call was even connected. Immediately before the connection, Plaintiff heard silence, then a machine noise, before the call was transferred to Defendant BELT. These facts support the fact that an Automatic Telephone Dialing System, or ATDS, was used to contact Plaintiff for this call.

28. During this call, Plaintiff spoke with Defendant BELT from “Space Coast Marketing.” BELT indicated he was calling because he claimed he sent Plaintiff an e-mail regarding web design and marketing, and claimed that Plaintiff replied asking for an e-mail to be sent with more information.

29. Never in his life had Plaintiff contacted Defendants, nor received any e-mails from Defendants as they claim, to precipitate the call.

30. Plaintiff responded that he had no idea who the call was for, that he was not interested, and not to call again.

31. To the best of Plaintiff’s knowledge, information, and belief, Plaintiff has never had any business relationship with Defendants, despite their claims during the call to the contrary.

32. Based on the inaccurate information given during the call and its scripted nature, it is clear that this message was sent en masse to thousands of “interested clients” on or about the same date and time that the plaintiff received his. Moreover, the fact that no human being was on the line until plaintiff answered the telephone, upon which time the autodialer connected Plaintiff to the caller, further supports the fact that an ATDS was used. No normal person cold calls people from a list and then claims that they “expressed interest”. This call was clearly sent using a scripted “automatic telephone dialing system.”

33. The three prior calls were also “robocalls” because they left identical messages on Plaintiff’s voicemail using an “artificial or prerecorded voice”.

34. Thereafter, Plaintiff contacted Defendants and requested to be placed on Defendants’

Do-Not-Call List and receive a copy of Defendants' Do-Not-Call policy, but never received anything, up to and including the date of this filing.

35. Because Plaintiff asked to receive Defendants' Do-Not-Call policy and did not, it is evident that Defendants do not maintain such a policy. Likewise, based on this fact, and the fact that Defendants have no clue who they are calling and use trickery and confusion to make a sales pitch, it is clear that Defendants do not have any Do-Not-Call lists or procedures in place. Based on the nature of their illegal activities, Defendants' noncompliance with the law in this regard is unsurprising.

36. Plaintiff received the calls on his private cellular telephone, which is, in addition to being a cellular telephone, is a telephone for which he is charged for the calls, as defined and set forth in 47 CFR § 64.1200(a)(1)(iii).

37. The TCPA makes it unlawful "to make any call (other than a call made for emergency purposes or made with the prior express consent of the called party) using an automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice... to any telephone number assigned to a... cellular telephone service... or any service for which the called party is charged for the call." See 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii). As stated immediately above, the calls were placed using an automatic telephone dialing system to Plaintiff's private cellular telephone line, on which he is charged for the call.

38. The TCPA provides a private cause of action to persons who receive calls in violation of 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A). See 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).

39. The TCPA provides a private cause of action to persons who receive calls in violation of any of the implementing regulations codified in 47 CFR 64.1200. See 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).

40. Plaintiff was harmed by the calls. He was temporarily deprived of legitimate use of his phone because his phone line was tied up, it used up his minutes, he wasted energy and stress in answering a call, his telephone batteries and electricity were depleted, he was charged for the calls, and his privacy was improperly invaded. Moreover, the calls injured Plaintiff because they were frustrating, obnoxious, annoying, were a nuisance and disturbed the solitude of Plaintiff. The Voicemail messages used up and continue to use up Plaintiff's voicemail space, which causes harm to Plaintiff by being able to receive fewer legitimate voicemails.

41. Plaintiff adequately confirmed corporate identity for each and every call so as to establish liability of Defendants, as more fully outlined above.

42. These telephone solicitations constituted "calls" under the TCPA that were not for emergency purposes.

43. Plaintiff did not provide any one, more, or all Defendants, nor any agent of Defendants, prior express written consent, or any other form of consent, express or implied, to cause Plaintiff to receive telephone calls on his personal telephone that utilized an "automatic telephone dialing system" or otherwise to transmit a message or make calls.

44. As a point of fact, to the extent that "consent" was supplied during the calls, that was done in order to discover the identity of the caller and for no other reason. Courts have held this to be legitimate and have not held such "consent" to be detrimental to a plaintiff bringing a TCPA action. See for instance, Bank v. Caribbean Cruise Line, which held that "Purporting to obtain consent during the call, such as requesting that a consumer 'press 1' to receive further information, does not constitute the prior consent necessary to deliver the message in the first place, as the request to 'press 1' is part of the telemarketing call.... As the FCC has stated, the consent must be made before the call."

45. Plaintiff had no prior business relationship with any one, more, or all of Defendants.

46. The telephone Sales Calls therefore violated 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A), 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(3)(F), 47 CFR 64.1200(d)(1), 47 CFR 64.1200(d)(3), 47 CFR § 64.1200(a)(1)(iii), 47 CFR § 64.1200(a)(1), and 47 C.F.R. 64.1200(c)(2).
